

COME IN! IT'S FINE.

Managers of any theatre in Honolulu who doubt the Popular Theater's claim to be showing Pathe's Weekly, No. 48, are invited to accept professional courtesies, attend a performance and be convinced. We are always looking for Missourians. Next week's number is 49.

POPULAR THEATER

Another winner, 10 reels—"The Three Musketeers," 6 reels; "The Perils of Pauline," 3 reels; Pathe's Weekly, No. 49, Series 1914. Owing to the length of this bill but one performance will be given each evening, commencing at 7:30. Make your reservations early.

John Barrymore in "An American Citizen," with the "Perils of Pauline" and an up-to-date Pathe's Weekly is packing them in—only three more nights. Read the "Perils of Pauline" in today's Star-Bulletin, Page 17.

JUST INFORMATION

A larger and better bill is being presented at the Popular theater in Honolulu than is shown at the Strand theater of New York City—admitted the premier photo-play house of America. For example, the Strand presents a Famous Player production and one other opening reel, charging from 15 to 30 cents, while the Popular theater presents the same Famous Player Weekly up to the minute, a "Perils of Pauline" and a Pathe by up to the minute, we may say, of this claim.

Cor. Fort and Hotel Sts. Phone 1297Mlle. Modiste TO BE PRESENTED AT OPERA HOUSE LAST TIME TONIGHT

Bessie Abbott Howland, who has leading role in "Mlle. Modiste" to be presented at the opera house for the last time tonight.

Tonight's performance of "Mlle. Modiste" will be the last one to be given in Honolulu, and it will be with regret that the members of the cast and chorus pack up their stage costumes and leave the opera house for with all the work connected with the production there has been a generous share of fun.

It has been months since any amateur production has received the hearty and unstinted praise that has been given "Mlle. Modiste," and everyone who attended the opera pronounced it a capital entertainment.

Bessie Abbott Howland, who was cast in the leading role delighted the audience at every turn. Her voice is pleasing and her stage work as natural as she is in real life, and the beautiful costumes she wears lends a charm to the affair that is altogether pleasing. One of the biggest hits of the entertainment is the "March of the Troop," in which song Mrs. Howland beats the snare drum as the soldiers drill for her. The selection was introduced into the opera because Fritz Scheff, for whom it was written, was so clever at handling the chore sticks. When it was first announced that Mrs. Howland would handle this number a little doubt was expressed as to whether she would be able to do it, but she proved to the skeptical ones that the handling of a drum was only one of her many accomplishments.

The opera will begin at 8:15 o'clock this evening and those who have not already seen it should make plans to attend tonight's performance for it is well worth while.

THE THREE MUSKETEERS WILL BE
'HEADLINER' AT POPULAR THEATER

Owing to Length of Bill But One Performance Will Be Given Each Night During Week

Another of the masterpieces of the Famous Players will be introduced at the Popular theater next week, commencing with the matinee of Wednesday, when "The Three Musketeers," one of the most elaborate photo-plays ever undertaken, will be the offering. This photo-play, which is in six parts, comes to Honolulu with the highest commendation following a successful tour of the mainland, where it has been shown in only the best and highest-priced houses. With this film will be three reels of "The Perils of Pauline," the serial story-film that is running in the Star-Bulletin in conjunction with the Popular theater, and the up-to-date Pathe Weekly, series of 1914, No. 49.

The complete bill will consist of ten reels, and owing to the length of time necessary in presenting such an offering but one performance will be given each evening, commencing promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

The "Perils of Pauline," which started last week, tells of the thrilling adventures of a youthful authoress, she being the victim of a villainous guardian. During the coming installment Pauline narrowly misses being the victim of an airship accident. This scene is one of the most thrilling ever screened and the machine was wrecked for the purpose of making the film, the operator having a close call in following his profession of actor-birdman.

Considerable favorable comment already has been heard relative to the introduction at this house of a Pathe Weekly that shows events as they are happening instead of dealing with matters that occurred many months ago.

John Barrymore in "An American Citizen" is proving a prime favorite at the Popular during the present week. As a comedian there are few can equal and none surpass Barrymore. "An American Citizen" is a vehicle that is well fitted to the ability of its star. It is of the laugh-a-minute variety and affords an exceptional evening's entertainment. Other features are the opening chapters of the "Perils of Pauline" and Pathe Weekly No. 48.
